FOUNDER SPEAK

ASHOK KHANNA
Founder & Managing Director

It's been more than two decades since we first started out, with only a Palace at the edge of time, surrounded by acres of wild lantana and natural beauty. Back then, all I had was a dream.

A picture of what I wanted to achieve and where I wanted to be. I had been taught to chase my dreams, so I kept my vision alive and walked on the path that would eventually lead me to Ananda.

In ancient India, holistic living was a way of life. People inherently understood the balance of nature, the ways of the universe and how the elements affected not just their physical health, but also their mental wellbeing.

It was understood that if they achieved harmony within, they would be at peace with their surroundings. As the world changed, so did we; but deep within us we have always upheld those beliefs and principles. That was the philosophy which brought Ananda in the Himalayas into being. My idea was to bring together the ancient remedies, and the deep rooted wisdom of Indian culture and blend them all with the best of international practices. The idea was to offer a cohesive programme for everyone who would visit the retreat. This location served as an inspiration to bring alive the wellness destination that I had in mind.

The hard work and passion of the people working at Ananda has won us many accolades. The idea is not to rest on our laurels. We take nothing for granted. Ananda is more than just the best wellness retreat in the world. It is a philosophy, a lifestyle and a tradition.

At Ananda, the Ayurvedic experience is transformational, from massages and detoxifying therapies to specialized diet programmes. Our commitment to this ancient life system is evident in the use of authentic ingredients, herbal supplements, and treatment rituals, with therapists trained in traditional Ayurvedic schools and expert guidance from leading Ayurvedic Doctors.

At Ananda, our specially curated menus are tailor-made for each individual based on their specific wellness programmes and needs. From Ayurvedic menus for each body type or dosha, to detox and weight management diets, to fitness regimes and balancing yogic menus, the culinary offering at Ananda is a nutritious, balancing, and healthy journey incorporating fresh, locally sourced, seasonal ingredients.

Yoga & Meditation

Yoga and Meditation at Ananda is a completely traditional practice which offers a means of balancing and harmonising the body, mind and spirit.
